A FOLK SONG

arranged by R. Vaughan Williams

1872-1960

Fare you well, my dear, I must be gone,
And leave you for a while;
If I roam away I'll come back again,
Though I roam ten thousand miles, my dear.

As fair thou art my bonny lass,
So deep in love am I;
But I never will prove false to the pretty girl I love,
Till the stars fall from the sky, my dear.

The sea will never run dry, my dear.
Nor the rocks never melt with the sun,
But I never will prove false to the pretty girl I love,
Till all these things be done my dear.

O yonder doth sit that little turtle dove,
He doth sit on yonder high tree,
A-making a moan the loss of his love,
As I will do for thee, my love.

BALLET

"Hark all ye lovely saints"

Thomas Weekles (c. 1574-1623)

Hark all ye lovely saints above,
Diana hath agreed with love
His fiery weapon to remove.

Do you not see
How thev agree?
Then cease, fair ladies, why weep ye?
Fa la la.

See, see, your mistress bids you cease
And welcome love with love's increase;
Diana hath procured your peace.

Cupid hath sworn
His bow forlorn
To break and burn, ere ladies mourn.
Fa la la.
